Nice of PG to be so chatty and expansive as always.

Changes are structural only:

Kenny Ortega has responsibility only for the show content & structure in consultation with MJ.
Randy Phillips and Dr Murray are responsible for MJ rehearsal and attendance schedule.

Looks like there might have been an issue of KO either not being demanding enough of MJ's attendance or causing concern with the schedule he was imposing. Either way, there are others designated to ensure MJ is front & center for rehearsals.
